'BOOKIE' ISSUE GETS ATTENTION

An ordinance authorizing the Chicago & North Western Railway company to lay a third main track through the Village of Arlington Heights was passed by the Village board Monday evening. On motion rules were suspended and the ordinance placed on passage at once. The council thus facilitates the company's announced plan to give Arlington Heights and other towns as far as Barrington the advantages of improved transportation which must follow added tracking.

Chief of Police C. H. Skoog reported back concerning the rumor of a new, greater handbook establishment being fitted up in Arlington Heights. It appears that due to quick action, this particular project after being fitted up to some extent, has been abandoned before actual operation. On motion of Trustee H. J. Byrd, seconded by H. F. Muller, the matter of handbooks was turned over to the police committee with power to act, as the Village code in force is explicit on this subject.

The police committee reported $121.50 in fines collected. A street light damaged in Stonegate by a car running into it, was ordered repaired by the committee, the bill to be sent to the driver of the car. The stop signal at Vail and N. W. highway, knocked over a few weeks ago, has not been paid for. Steps will be made to collect.

The street and sidewalk committee reported giving a permit to the Public Service company, to repair a gas leak at Campbell street and State road; and reported that the bill to the Village truck Monday at Haddon and Euclid avenues. A report has been made of this to the insurance company. On motion, it was decided to turn the old truck on a new Chevrolet at $495 from G. W. Zander Motor Sales.

Invited to Stonegate.

Mr. H. Ashton and Chairman Herbert Reinhardt of the community association of Stonegate were present to thank the board for laying the cinder walk to town. They invited President Mors and the board to their meeting next Monday evening, Oct. 14, which invitation was accepted.

More complaints were received on state water in the mains. Trustee Albert Goetzke stated that the water supply of Stonegate could be shut off temporarily and nearby mains thoroughly flushed; which would better the condition.

The opening of Grove street from S. Highland to S. Chestnut was brought up by an interested property owner. These were advised to meet with the school board on the question of dedicating the necessary strip of land.

Water tubs on Foundry road was a question referred to the city engineer for action.

The high school board of education were present to ask the village to repair North Walnut street along the east side of the high school grounds. It seems the Village board did not feel like starting on this line on account of the money which could be consumed in various parts of the village. The high school people were asked to circulate a petition for permanent paving.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted, and after Chief Skoog's report as above, the meeting adjourned.

Hello Folks Invite Public To Visit Plant

Proud of their new building and equipment, the local telephone people are holding special visiting days the last three days of this week. Visitors are invited to go through the building. Employee guides are furnished to explain the wonderful workings of the new, latest equipment, and answer any sort of question pertaining to telephone service or operation.

People are asked to call these days from two to five and from seven to nine o'clock at the new plant at 11 North State road.

It is hoped by these special visiting days to acquaint more with the telephone service and how to make the most of it with the least trouble. "We have always found that the more familiar people are with our work, the better we get along with them," said Mr. A. R. Andrews, local manager.

The plant is always open for visitors, and some one will always be available to take them through. But this is a special effort to increase the friendly contact.

WILL TAG FOR INFANT WELFARE

Junior Girls from High School to Help Good Work Tomorrow

As a means of gaining support for the Infant Welfare, a tag day will be held in Arlington Heights tomorrow, Saturday, October 12.

Girls representing the junior class of the high school will meet all trains during these hours and will tag persons on the streets. A house to house canvas will also be made. The taggers will be designated by arm bands.

Funds obtained in this manner will be used to finance the Infant Welfare, the services of which are free to all feeding babies. Sick babies are not cared for by the Infant Welfare. On an average of twenty-five babies are brought by their mothers each month to a specialist from Chicago who comes to Arlington Heights. The Infant Welfare clinic is held in the Public Health office above the Davis store on the second Wednesday of each month at from two to 5 p. m.

Arlington Heights is proud of the fact that thus far she has been able to take her place with other towns of five thousand population or more which have Infant Welfare centers. This work has been made possible in the past through the generous response of local citizens to tag day.

Because Arlington Heights citizens have always been ready to help, the infant welfare tag day will be a success.

Steak Tastes Good To Battling Lions As Ducks Fly High

The Lions club members of Arlington Heights got walloped at golf yesterday afternoon at the Biltmore country club by players from the Barrington club, but they did have a jolly time and an elegant supper afterward. It was steak; the ducks are still enjoying life.

Eleven players went up from Arlington Heights and only seven from Barrington; so it was seven against seven. The low men, however were C. M. Behrens of Arlington Heights, and Mr. Hay of Barrington, each of whom shot 48. By a flip, Mr. Behrens got the prize. G. W. Zander, who was to have burned up the course, was a little off his game this time, but vows revenge next Tuesday, when there is a return match between the Lions clubs at the Rolling Green country club just east of Arlington Heights.

Presbyterians Give Successful Supper

The elegant harvest supper served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church last evening was attended by over 400 persons. Many people of nearby churches attended the supper, as many of the people of the Presbyterian congregation have been seen at similar occasions elsewhere.

One of the nice things about these suppers is the opportunity of expressing the neighborly community spirit, overflowing denominational "imaginary" lines. This neighborly spirit of Arlington Heights people was expressed in abundance last evening; and the hard working ladies no doubt felt gratified with the success of the event.

The Pure Milk Association local of Buffalo Grove will hold a meeting at Firnback hall, Friday, October 11, 1929 at 8 p. m. A. J. Weidner, Pres.; J. Raup, Sec.

HANOVER AND SCHAUMBURG ALSO OBJECT

Declare Assessment Made by Experts to be Unscientific

The townships of Hanover and Schaumburg are joining the towns of Elk Grove, Wheeling and Palatine in opposing the new assessment figures. In both Hanover and Schaumburg townships farming area predominates and the increase in the tax assessment is not large, but the figures are so unjust that a complete new assessment seems to be the only way that they can be corrected.

The methods used by the experts in arriving at their figures are at variance with the methods used by the assessors and explain the many errors. Mr. Lichthardt, assessor of Schaumburg township, stated Tuesday that the usual method followed by him and other assessors is to place value on farm lands in tracts of twenty or forty acres, and in accordance to their value as farm land. Thus a slough would not be assessed as much as good tillable land. The experts appear to have used the measuring stick only, placing the value on land according to its distance from paved roads and Chicago and not on farming value. These people would place a high value on a piece of untillable land that is near a paved road and a low value on a good piece of farm land that happens to be at some distance from a hard road.

The total increase in Schaumburg township is not much, but the errors are so many that Mr. Lichthardt is unwilling to O. K. the books of the so-called experts.

A mass meeting of taxpayers in Hanover township was held Monday night. Mayor Ben Schultz also attended. It was the biggest gathering ever held in the township. H. L. Oltendorf, the assessor of the township, reported that he found the books full of discrepancies and errors. Attorney Tysell, of Elgin and Mayor Schultz also spoke. The people present unanimously asked that the assessor make a new assessment and correct the errors. Mr. Oltendorf has served the people of that township as assessor 27 years and there has never been a complaint.

Similar action is contemplated by other townships in this part of Cook county. A big mass meeting will be held in Palatine Monday night, to which any interested are welcome.

Fire Prevention Week Observed In the Schools

The Arlington Heights public schools, are observing Fire Prevention week in response to the proclamation of Governor Emmerson. The teachers are endeavoring to teach the children the great dangers from fires and the right ways to prevent them. By fire drills the children are taught the value of orderly dismissal.

A drill witnessed by a Herald reporter Wednesday morning was impressive. On the spur of the moment, Supt. E. D. Whitmore gave two taps to the bell in the front hallway, and it was a matter of about five seconds when two lines of children were going down the front steps without hurrying and by grades into separate lines on St. James street. In about a minute the entire building was empty; and they were back again in their places, resuming their class work in about two minutes more.

Truancy Checked

Through the faithful work of the Superintendent and community nurse working in cooperation, a close check is kept against truancy and any bad conditions menacing the safety or efficiency of the pupils.

Histories Improved

A glance at the Eighth grade histories used reveals a big advance over what the previous generation had to study. Then all events were classified under presidential administrations, wars and military campaigns.

No instruction is by topic. The development of American civilization is treated by tracing each principal phase from its beginnings by its progress. The stress now is on social development, invention and achievement, and these are more intelligently interpreted.

Athletic Events

Athletics make more news than good, steady instruction work; and it may therefore be reported that the seventh grade boys made a trip to Palatine Monday afternoon, to meet the Palatine seventh graders at baseball, and won 10 to 6.

The seventh and eighth grade girls are vying one class with the other at playground baseball. The game is played at recesses with indoor baseballs.

Mr. Weller, director of the boys' outdoor activities, has set up basketball standards in the rear playground; and boys and girls are practicing with them.

POTPOURRI Of Sense and Nonsense

Wasn't it Coolidge who said "Have Faith in Massachusetts"? Well, we echo it and paraphrase, "Have Faith in Arlington Heights." The local administration voted to put out of business every "bookie" now operating in the city. Out go the books, the tickers, the seven-telephone house and everything. That is good business. The bookies have brought Arlington Heights neither fame nor money, only infamy and I. O. U.'s. Potpourri wants to express its appreciation.

Ford now has Europe on its ears. Wednesday's paper tells us that he expects to pay the $6 minimum wage there that he now pays here. European industry says it will kill all European industry. That is exactly what the U. S. said when the $8 day was introduced by Ford here. But it was the biggest single boon that ever came to labor. European living standards will have to adjust themselves to this new level and then everyone will be ahead. Come on, Henry, we're with you.

Now if somebody would only pay Northern Wages in the Southern states, our textile troubles that have cost so many lives, so much bitter feeling and so much money, would end.

If you want a man's honest reaction to any given subject, shoot a word at him and ask him to shoot back as fast as he can the first word that comes to his mind. Many a criminal has been caught that way. A different use is made of this system in a study of Chicago made by Chicago U. Said the inquirer, "Alderman" Came back the reply, "Gaffer." "City Hall" said the professor, "Corruption" came the answer. In Europe like questions would bring forth far different answers. An aroused citizenry could change conditions here.

The Tribune had a significant cartoon this week when it pictured the nations which desired reduction of armaments as those which had Women's suffrage, and those opposed, France, Italy, Japan, as those opposed to universal suffrage. The hand that rocks the cradle has only raised canon fodder but it will yet rule the world.

First, it was Lincoln coming to the Presidency from a log cabin, and now it is a third rate pitcher, Ehme, who becomes the world series hero. Ehme is a third rate pitcher who has won seven games all season and is supposed to be having a bad arm. Yet he set a world series' record by striking out 13 men including the great Rajah and the Mighty Hack twice when any hit meant victory. Move over, Abe; move over Lindy, make room for a new hero, Howard Ehme.

Another hero to come from oblivion is Ramsey MacDonald. Fourteen years ago when Hoover was a world celebrity, MacDonald was an obscure, unpopular radical ousted from his own gold club for being a slacker and a "coney". Now he has the world destiny in his hands.

Is the war over? Not for Doctor Sattler. He tried to forget the war; could not. The days were not bad, but every night he disappeared. He returned hollow eyed, weary every morning. Trained at last, his friends found him in a trench with firing step, sand bags, dugout. Every night under the stars he kept the old vigil, staring intently for the slightest move on the part of the ally enemies he felt were near. Dr. Sattler, a great engineer, was committed last week to a German hospital for the incurably insane. There are hundreds of thousands like him who are still fighting the war. And millions of others whose lives never will be the same. Come on America. Get behind Hoover and MacDonald. Back every step that lessens the possibility of war.

Farewell Surprise Party Given for The Billmans

A goodly company of parishioners and other friends of Rev. and Mrs. Allan Billman, who are leaving, after a very fruitful five years' pastorate at Arlington Heights, for their new field at Lake Forest, gave a real surprise party upon them last evening at the church.

Dr. Best engineered getting Mr. Billman over there from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Atkinson.

After general visiting a program was given. Mrs. Ethel Store Miller sang, then Dr. B. T. Best gave a brief historical sketch, which for lack of time as we go to press, will be printed in the Tuesday issue. Mr. Ennis Nebergall of Waukegan sang next, followed by very appropriate remarks by Rev. H. A. Kossack of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Miller sang again. Then Mr. E. N. Miller, president of the Men's club, organized for Mr. Billman's leadership, presented him with a purse as a genuine expression of affection, on the part of the club members and parishioners. Mr. Billman responded feelingly. Refreshments followed the program. Mr. Leslie Moodie was chairman of the committee of the Men's club which arranged the farewell party.

Mr. Billman leaves Arlington Heights with the heartiest good wishes of the friends who know him as a genuinely sincere and able man.

SOUTH SIDE PARK PROJECT WILL BE TAKEN UP MONDAY

Commissioners Offered Gift of Major Part of Block by the School

The block (4) just east of the South public school property is to be made into a public park and playground if the Arlington Heights Park district commissioners see their way clear to accept the offer of the gift of the major portion of the block from Messrs. F. W. Giesecke and Otto Landmeier, making a way to pay for the remaining two lots not owned by these gentlemen.

The commissioners are to meet Monday night and try to work out a way with their present slender financial outlook to buy these two lots, and thus be in position to accept the handsome gift offered to the village.

This block is bounded by Highland, South, Vail and Grove streets. It is 262.30 feet east and west and 272.96 feet north and south. The creek to be taken over by the new big sewer system, runs through east and west. Fortunately for the development into a park, no building has been done on the tract. Its location is central to the south side and handy to the school building.

DONATIONS IN ORDER FOR NEW LIBRARY

Mt. Prospect Woman's Club Undertakes Project

The Mt. Prospect Woman's club has taken hold of establishing a public library for the residents of the village.

It takes time and effort to get a project of this nature in shape, and if everyone will cooperate, the library will be a reality in a very short time.

Mrs. J. Gehring and Mrs. Paul Schvepeler will be pleased to receive a phone call offering help with either a donation of books or cash. This volunteer effort will be well rewarded in the having a part in establishing a public library for one's home town. This reward can not be measured in dollars and cents but it will be a satisfaction of the right instincts of civic pride and cooperation. A public library is one of those things that make a town a better place to live in.

Let everyone do his share and in this way help the Woman's club put over a public library for Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Gehring's phone is 860-R; Mrs. Schvepeler's, 866-J. The pleasure of taking the donations has been given these two lovely women. There is no need to call at any home for books or what each may desire to do for this, Mt. Prospect's library.

Authorize Proceedings For New Sewer For North Mount Prospect

The property owners of Mount Prospect owning lots north of Center road and east of Elmhurst road hope to soon have a new sewer. The public hearing upon a $135,190 improvement was held Tuesday evening at the village hall. There was a large representation of the property owners all of whom evidently desired the improvement as no objections were made and the board of local improvements passed the necessary resolution.

That section of Mt. Prospect has been without a sewer until this time and the village board and said to be a hundred per cent in the people of the village can be favor of the project, which will no doubt be rushed to completion.

Banks to Close Tomorrow Except In Evening Hours

The Mt. Prospect State Bank, the Arlington Heights State bank and People's State Bank of Arlington Heights will close all day tomorrow (Saturday), the occasion being "Columbus Day." To accommodate patrons, the banks will be open at the regular hours in the evening.

Dr. B. T. Best Gives Scouts Demonstration And Talk on Cotton

Dr. B. T. Best, chairman of the camping committee of the North-west council and a troop committee member of Arlington Heights Boy Scouts, attended last Monday's meeting at the high school and gave a short, but very interesting talk on "cotton."

Specimen cotton plants, seeds, oil, cake, etc., sent him from Oklahoma by a Mr. Gerald, were shown in connection with the talk. The scouts appreciated his remarks and hope that many talks of a similar nature will be available to them this season.

MT. PROSPECT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACT

Conducts Its Own Reas- sessment for Benefit of Citizens

The Board of Directors of the Mt. Prospect Chamber of Commerce at the request and expression of a great majority of the citizens of the village have started work on the tabulation of the reassessment of village property.

One fact that no citizen of Mt. Prospect can overlook is the civic duty these men are performing in giving their time and effort to see to it that a fair and just tax is put upon the property. Teams have been organized that are putting in four hours a day and upwards to complete this enormous task at the earliest possible date.

A list of discrepancies is being made and this will be turned over to George Meier, the local assessor, for his attention, which will save him considerable time in checking up his books. It is indeed a task. The citizens of Mt. Prospect justly can feel proud of their Chamber of Commerce which is composed of progressive business men that are only looking toward the interests of the citizens of that village.

As soon as this work is completed the Chamber of Commerce will call another mass meeting at which time they will have complete information for every property owner in the village.

Report of Mass Meeting.

At the mass meeting held last Thursday night William Busse outlined the reasons for the reassessment under the rules of the Illinois Tax commission. Mr. Al Volz gave those present at that meeting an insight into the work as being done in the town of Wheeling, explaining the compact system being used.

After a discussion of general principles a motion was made to have the chamber of commerce continue this work, which motion was duly seconded and was passed.

Mr. Gewecke of the Truck Gardeners' association gave a very interesting talk on the machinery of the re-assessment and what an individual would go through if he or she were to file their complaint alone. He suggested the principle of co-operation and the entire matter being handled by one organization.

Methodist Men's Club In Annual Election

Mr. E. N. Miller was elected president of the Men's club of the Methodist church Monday evening. Mr. Raymond Hayes was made vice president, and Mr. Stewart Alden secretary and treasurer. Mr. Edward Nelson was the retiring president.

This was the evening of the close of the conference and Mr. Billman just from there was asked for a report on the results. He spoke highly of his successor, Rev. Samuel B. Taylor, and bespoke the same loyal cooperation he had received during his pastorate, during which the club was started.

Further discussion was of activities for the year, after which the members went upstairs for a game of volleyball.

Four Hurt Monday In Auto Collision

When a Ford car was going west on Euclid Avenue Monday morning, and the Arlington Heights village truck south on Haddon avenue, the two met.

In the Ford, Mr. Wellington Kopp, a candy salesman of Libertyville had a collar bone fractured, and Mrs. Kopp a cut in the arm. F. J. Hinz, driving the truck, had his hand badly cut, and John Porvic of Arlington Heights, riding with Mr. Hinz, seven fractured ribs. The truck was insured, and the village is getting a new one.

Retired Minister Stops Here Enroute on Year Trip About Country

Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, of Central City, Iowa, were visitors at the home of their cousins, Richard M. Bennett, of Palatine, Tuesday evening, as one of their first stops on a trip about the country that they expect will take a year. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sayles, pioneers of this part of Cook county. When ten years old Mable Sayles moved to Iowa with her parents, where she later married Rev. Smith. The only return visit she has made to Palatine occurred during the world's fair, thirty-five years ago.

The travelers have equipped a car with beds and all the appurtenances of housekeeping and from here will pass into eastern Canada, continuing to the Atlantic seaboard, where they will turn south so as to spend the early part of the winter in Florida. California will be reached by next spring, when they will start north for Canada, returning to their home in Iowa next autumn. Both are nearly 65 years of age and are looking forward to their trip with as much eagerness as a party of boy scouts.

Lions Club in Farewell to Rev. Billman

Members of the Lions club turned out well Tuesday evening for an especially good dinner served by the Lutheran ladies at the school dining room.

Rev. Allan Billman, who has been a member throughout almost the entire history of the club, was called on for a few words, and he responded; after which the members rose and gave him the Lions' roar. Mr. Billman assumes charge of the work of the Lake Forest Methodist church after a five years' pastorate in Arlington Heights. He expressed his appreciation of the very pleasant fellowship afforded by the Lions' club meetings during his long membership.

The club decided to accept the challenge of the Barrington organization for a golf tournament at the Biltmore Country club Thursday, to be followed by a wild duck dinner.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY IN ELECTION

Spent Pleasant Evening Tuesday at Legion Home

Merle Guild post, American Legion, and the Ladies' auxiliary elected officers at the same time Tuesday evening at the Legion home on West Campbell street.

New Legion Officers

Orville T. Kurtz, was elected commander; George E. Palmer, senior vice commander; Thos. A. Pope, junior vice commander; Albert C. Russell, adjutant; Clarence Stadler, finance officer; Warren Parker, chaplain; George Hughes, sergeant-at-arms; and the executive committee as follows: Phil Engkeling, James McElhose and Robert Malzahn.

The ladies elected Miss Laura McElhose, president; Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick, first vice president; Mrs. Math Schaeffer, second vice president; Mrs. Thomas Pope, secretary; Mrs. W. L. Parker, treasurer; Mrs. Albert Russell, chaplain; Mrs. George E. Palmer, sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Alice Hughes, historian.

Wholesale Grape Jelly.

One group of ladies have picked four bushels of grapes on the Legion property and made an equivalent of 240 glasses of jelly to take to the disabled veterans at the Elgin hospital. Another group has recently given the Legion home a cleaning.

Awarded Title.

The legion voted George E. Palmer the title of past commander; last year he served most of the time in the commander's work.

Piano music and singing was enjoyed to a late hour; all had an especially good time. Refreshments were home made pie a la mode and coffee.

Mrs. Schneberger Dies Suddenly at Evanston Hospital

Mrs. Mathilda Schneberger, wife of Mr. Gottlieb Schneberger, 412 East Euclid Avenue, Arlington Heights, passed away suddenly at two o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Evanston hospital. She was taken to the hospital Wednesday noon for a sudden operation, and did not survive the shock.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed as the Herald goes to press.

Mrs. Schneberger would have been 59 years of age Feb. 4 next. She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Carrie Hardtke, Mrs. Alice Siemro, Miss Emily and Miss Mildred Schneberger, and one son, Mr. George Schneberger of Arlington Heights. There are four grandchildren.

Holy Name Society Gives Big Party for All the Parishioners

The Holy Name Society Tuesday night entertained the people of St. James parish including the ladies and children at the Parish hall.

A speaker from Chicago, Mr. Brand, gave a ringing address on the principles of the Holy Name society. Games were played, cards and bunco, and "those who did not come surely missed something," was the verdict. A good crowd did attend, and enjoyed themselves immensely. Refreshments including coffee and cake were served. It was an open meeting for the benefit of the whole parish.

Mr. John J. Wydra was chairman for the arrangements.

Ladies' Auxiliary V.F.W. to Give Old Time Dance

An old time dance will be held at the high school gymnasium Saturday evening, Oct. 19, by the Ladies' auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

PREPARE FOR CONFERENCE MUSIC FEST

Problem is Of Place Big Enough to Hold the Crowd

Principal L. O. Bright of Antioch high school was appointed chairman by the Antioch conference for the purpose of making arrangements for the annual joint music festival for the coming year. He is to choose the other members of the committee.

The music to be used at the festival will be selected by the committee, so that lists of the music may be sent to the musical organizations of the various schools, and practice can begin at once.

Chairman Bright is already making a check on the number of pupils that can be depended upon to take part in the music festival in the spring.

One of the biggest problems confronting that committee is going to be that of finding a suitable place to hold the music festival. The capacity of the large gymnasium and auditorium at Bensenville, holding about 2500 persons, was taxed last year, and with the added interest this year, it seems certain that there will be no school building in the conference large enough to accommodate all who will want to attend. Mr. Bright has in mind consulting the school authorities of the new Maine township high school to determine if it might be possible to take the festival there.

The new plan of the festival, so successful last year, is for all the musical organizations of all the schools in the conference to work mainly on the same selections; so that only final rehearsals en masse will be necessary to put on a big and creditable performance on the big day. The crowded attendance to a surprisingly good program by big ensembles at Bensenville last year generated high enthusiasm for the new plan.

Quiet Wedding for Miss Evelyn Menard And Art. Dieball, Jr.

Two popular young people of Arlington Heights were quietly married by Rev. H. C. Fricke at his residence at 8:15 Saturday evening—Miss Evelyn Menard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Menard, 113 South Walnut avenue, and Mr. Arthur Dieball, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dieball, 414 North Evergreen avenue.

Miss Erna Dieball, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Gerald Menard, brother of the bride, best man.

Prosperity

Comes Only By Saving

The difference between the rich man and the poor man is, generally, that the one saved his money and invested it wisely, while the other spent all he made.

No matter how much you earn, you will never be wealthy or independent if you spend it all. Spare time and spare money are the poor man's capital, and his ultimate success depends upon the returns from the capital.

Why the Fall Fell

You've probably all heard that old saying, "Summer can not come without a fall." In case you don't know what you've read when you're through this will be a short history of fall.

You see, back in the early days there were only summer, winter and spring. The people felt pretty bad because there wasn't anything between summer and winter. So the people took what was left after summer, winter and spring and got through. But they didn't know what to call it. One person of wit (a half-wit) said "It's relation of spring, it falls before winter and falls after summer, why not call it fall?" So they did and still regret it.

This brings us to football, which is more or less a game of falling, and also brings us to pumpkins. If one ever fell on your head you wouldn't doubt that it was a fall.

Well, anyway, if anyone asks you if you know anything about fall, you can tell them you don't!

Big Ears

Mrs. Frank Burns, South Highland, left last Sunday morning for New York where she will visit in several different places with relatives and friends. She is not expected home for two weeks.

Mrs. Joe Hofstetter, South Dunton, accompanied Mrs. Garvis to Park Ridge Thursday to attend the all day meeting of the Women's club.

Mrs. A. Shoemaker's mother, S. Dunton returned home from Kansas this week after a three weeks' visit.

Mrs. A. Bohlen parents are guests at the Bohlen home, South Walnut, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Merry, South Walnut, celebrated their first wedding anniversary at their home last Tuesday evening, with a dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dohbins and Mr. and Mrs. J. Merry were the guests.

Webster's Thankfulness

I thank God that if I am gifted with little of the spirit which is able to raise mortals to the skies, I have yet none, as I trust, of that other spirit which would drag angels down. — Daniel Webster (1782-1852). Speech, January 26, 1830.

Trifles Show Character

I have seldom known anyone who deserted truth in trifles that could be trusted in matters of importance. — Paley.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop No. 7

A number of Scouts from Troop 7 attended the football games at Dyche field, Evanston, last Saturday and outside of straining a tonsil or two cheering, came home "right end up—with care."

Johnny Schulenburg thought the circus had come to town when all the toy balloons were released following the first touchdown, but couldn't catch one so tried to drink all the pop on the place and went into dry dock for repairs.

Dr. Lauterburg chased a hot dog all over the bleachers but couldn't make first down so took a penalty for three muffed flies.

Then LaVerne Olsen saw a kick off and thought Carl Behrens had taken up flying, at least he said the features looked familiar.

After the game, the gang was rounded up, pried loose from numerous cats and headed for home well filled with pop, sandwiches, gum and fun.

Many thanks are extended to those who invited the scouts and to the men who donated time and autos to make the trip a reality.

An overnight trip has been announced by Scout Commissioner Thompson, through Northwest Council Headquarters, for Saturday and Sunday, October 19 and 20.

The trip will be for scouts and their dads with scout leaders, committeemen and councilmen and will be in the nature of a grand powwow, making for better acquaintance and improved scouting.

Announcements as to time, place cost, and will be in the hands of scouts today.

Assistant Scoutmaster Goumas was absent from this week's meeting as the result of a battle with a savage pole. George says he burnt the pole, but was stopped so suddenly that it shook him up a bit and he'll be back next week with bells on.

Just a reminder to some absentees. One rule promulgated by the scouts of the troop is "avoidable absence from meetings twice in one month automatically places the absentee on probation for the following month. Absence from meeting during the month of probation if avoidable places the scout on the "drop list."

The "after summer" drop list will be forwarded October 19. If you are numbered among the five or six absentees and wish to remain numbered among the members of Troop No. 7 next Monday's meeting will be your opportunity.

Regular troop meetings in the high school gym Mondays at 7:30 p. m.

Meetings start promptly at 7:30 and close at 9:15 p. m.

Bring scout handbooks for scouting and gym shoes for games.

If you have a uniform, wear it. If you haven't, why not get one and line up with the uniformed squad.

See you at next meeting.

The Wolf Cub Pack meeting in Room 7 at the same time, is stepping along the path of achievements and some great things are in store for them at the rate they are going.

Cubs who have been absent and who have not reported recently will do well to get regular at meetings.

A Cub hike is on the list for the near future, but only for those who attend meetings and work and its going to be some hike. Ask "Bud."

Cubs are boys 9, 10 and 11 years of age. Scouts range from 12 years up.

And while we are on the subject of scouting let's give a thought to the mothers of the Parents Auxiliary.

They are working hard to insure the success of the troop, why can't all scout mothers get behind them and help. It's for your boys, for their betterment and a lift by you is an aid to yours.

Friday evening, October 25 they are giving a card party at the South Side school, where you and yours can enjoy your favorite game—including bunco.

Be there? Surely, for beside the games there will be prizes and refreshments.

Surprise Shower on Bride-To-Be

A shower was given for Miss Ruth Bendien, last Thursday evening a week ago at the Reese apartment by Mrs. W. Keiser and a jolly group of friends. The bride-to-be received many pretty and useful gifts which were very cleverly presented. A huge sprinkling can hung over the center of the table from which were numerous ribbon streamers. By pulling a streamer one could get a gift from the sprinkling can. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess and all those present wished their friend future happiness.

Well Mrs. Chas. Lorenzen and Mrs. Kost have returned from their trip to Wisconsin. They had a wonderful trip they say. Rather snappy weather but that gives one pep.

Plenty of good eats at the Harvest supper given by the Ladies Aid Thursday evening. It does one good to get away from home and eat once in awhile and especially when one can rest assured that the cooking is clean and well cooked.

Big Pep Meeting

That high school spirit must have been revived again this year, judging from all the excitement Thursday evening. They had a big bon fire near the high school. A big sizzling fire is just what it takes to get a crowd pepped up and enthused over an on-coming game. Then there was one of those wiggling snake dances too. With such enthusiastic backing we know the boys will play their best Friday when they meet Leyden. Here's a little poem for those that were there cheering at the pep meeting.

Back Your Team

Get back of your team,
Let them know that you're there,
Keep them on to the goal,
Let your cheers rend the air.

Don't look on and muse,
On the plays of the team;
They'll need all their backers
To help win the game.

Make them back up and grin,
Make them prove they can win;
Don't mock Cal or the Sphinx,
Tell them what the crowd thinks.

Hartmann's Shoe Store has been very attractively decorated in fall leaves, very appropriate for the season and making a striking background for the new fall style shoes.

Walther League Picnic

The Senior Walther League of the Lutheran church led by their president, Mr. Koebnick and Rev. Fricke, had a jolly time last Monday evening. A large group of young people arrived at the school about eight o'clock all ready for the big hay ride to be followed by a wiener roast at Kay's farm, near the high school. The girls looked awfully cute with their long full skirts and poke bonnets ad some of the fellows were hardly recognizable in their overalls and straw hats. A committee planned entertainment and refreshments.

Chicken supper! Where? At St. John's church. When? Thursday, Oct. 17 beginning at 5:30 p. m. Adults 65c and children 35c per plate. Come!

"Words Fail to Express Thanks" For New Konjola

Man Had Rheumatism for Fifteen Years; Now Is Well Again

MR. JOHN BATES

"Words fail to express my thanks for Konjola," said Mr. John Bates, 805 North Dearborn Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. "Fifteen years ago I became afflicted with rheumatism and five years later catarrh developed. Rheumatism affected my arms and shoulders. The poisons in my system made my stomach disordered and caused gas, bloating and indigestion pains after every meal.

"I began reading and hearing much about Konjola and decided to try it. Each new day saw me more improved. The rheumatism became less severe and finally vanished. Catarrh disappeared and has never returned. When the poisons were eliminated from my system all signs of stomach trouble disappeared. Konjola gave me health, glorious health, and that is why I praise this medicine with all my heart and soul."

Konjola is sold in Arlington Heights, Ill., at W. F. Sieburg drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

STADE'S MILK

Is Available to Every Mt. Prospect Home

We take pleasure in announcing that, beginning today, Stade's milk and dairy products are available to every home in Mount Prospect.

This announcement is of importance to the many families who have wanted Stade milk, but who have lived outside of previous Stade delivery zones.

A telephone call to 8063-Y-2 will bring Stade milk to your home tomorrow morning. We recommend to everyone interested in rich, pure milk and dairy products, to try Stade milk.

The growth of the Stade business has been steady, conservative, built solely on retail delivery to Arlington Heights homes, and on customer satisfaction. The company's record of holding customers has been phenomenal.

If you know any Stade customers, ask their opinion of Stade milk. Or still better, call 8063-Y-2 and a Stade milkman will be at your door the next day, and you can test this milk for yourself by using and tasting it.

A Stade customer is never satisfied with anything but Stade milk.

Work is the Law

Like iron that lying idle about degenerates into a mass of useless rust, like water that in an unrudded pool sickens into a stagnant and corrupt state, so without action the spirit of men turns to a dead thing, loses its force, ceases to inspire us to leave some trace of ourselves on this earth. — Joseph Conrad.

A Puzzler

OBSERVER'S NOTES

He ran through the land, With his pencil in hand; His mission was gathering news, By the time he got there It had gone over air. Not a fragment left he could use, For all the news known Travels over the phone, Or is broadcast from whence unto where.

Ever try it? Criticize the local paper. Say I never read that old paper anyway. Never anything in it anyway. Yes that is a common remark. Not one bit encouraging to those who are doing their best to make it newsy for you. It's for you to send in material to make a better paper. Phone 417-R and help — as Harvey Woodruff cries: Help! Help! Help!

This is Tuesday morning and there came news of an auto smash up over on Haddon and Euclid; all so word that Carl Annen broke one of his ankles in the football game Sunday. That Arthur Dieball and Evelyn Menard were married and that there are to be two kinds of pie served at the Harvest supper Thursday night. Isn't that news?

Read about a learned educator who advised thinking happily to avoid accidents. Keep a calm mind, think cheerful, pleasant thoughts and by so doing your hand will move more steadily and your brain will function on the plane of safety. No doubt if you think happy thoughts you will steer your car so as to avoid accidents.

Heard a good joke the other day and wanted to tell it to you all but concluded someone would spoil it by saying "that's an old one." Did you ever think how fortunate Adam was in his ability to enjoy telling jokes, being the first man, no one could use that mean come back "I've heard that one before."

A bright young Scotchman told me a new one on his countryman the other day. An Irishman left this world and went to the gate of the next. Old Peter was about to admit him when Pat saw the place crowded with Scotchmen in kilts. He shrank back and inquired how all these Scots got in. Old Peter said "O, they found out that salvation is free and so here they are." Now I want you to note it was a Scot told me that.

Speaking of Scotchmen reminds me of the Premier of England or Great Britain visiting our country and the French want someone to make him tell just exactly the object of his coming. Never mind, some of us over here pretty well understand why he came. By the way, saw that Miss Isabel McDonald says she doesn't smoke, paint her face or drink, well neither do I.

Old friends! How good it is to know they remember. Seeing our old friend Mr. D. T. MacNab raking leaves on his lawn the other day stopped to tell him how glad we were to see him look so well and able to heap up such a mountain of leaves. After starting on our walk he called me back to inquire for an old friend, Mrs. Frances Sisson, now Mrs. Scott. She has leased her home in Champaign to one of the college professors and is for the winter with her mother, Mrs. Morton in Florida.

In the far off days Mrs. Sisson's home was one of the most hospitable that ever opened its doors to public groups in church and social affairs. The Knights of the Globe of which her husband was a member as well as Mrs. MacNab and a score of others, were royally entertained at the Evergreens, the old home of the Sissons. It always pleases us to be remembered by old friends.

We are such a busy people I fear we sometimes fail to be good neighbors. To speak the kindly word to reach the friendly hand to those in trouble or who sorrow for loved ones separated from them here in this life. Our friend and neighbor, Mr. H. C. Cleveland, lost his honored mother out of this earthly life, not long ago. How many of us have remembered?

This we do know Mr. Cleveland had in all the drive and worry of his busy life, sent her a message each week and as often as possible gone to visit her. This must be of comfort for him in remembering. In the passing of Mrs. Charles Cleveland, Observer misses a loyal friend whose appreciative words often made bright dreary places. To our neighbor, her son, Mr. H. C. Cleveland, and appreciative remembrance of her words of cheer. To her son the world can never be the same since mother is not in it.

The world can never be the same, Since Mother's gone; You miss the messages that came As weeks moved on.

You miss the sight of her dear face, Her greeting smile; You dream that in the old home place, You'll see her after while.

You miss her messages each week, Always so sure, so kind; Words often she could not quite speak, Prayers written in her mind.

The world can never be the same Since Mother's gone; In broken prayers you breathe her name, And lonely follow on.

A friend who has been taking a few long rides and walks this season says she is more and more impressed with the beauty of Northern Illinois. It is well to appreciate the excellences of our own Governor Emmerson's address on Illinois which we heard over radio Saturday night, made some of us old Illinoisans feel mighty chummy. He told us much we hadn't known or realized, especially about oil production, airplanes and wall paper. Root for Illinois.

Bishop Anderson's address on Chicago before the Sunday evening club, admitting there was crime and wicked people in Chicago, but the loved Chicago and that first of all to make better an individual you must love them, and so it is with a city. If you love Chicago, you will do all in your power to make it an ideal city. True love means service. Make Chicago worth loving.

It is gratifying to find so many of our citizens are making use of the old prairie boulders in beautifying their home grounds. A pleasing example of this is to be found at the former Goodrich place, now made into a beautiful modern home, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kuhlman. The house is a slightly pretty one. The winding walks and the rock garden, with lily pool and cascades are artistic and pleasing. A wall of boulders and many other features make this home one of the attractive places in town.

The pleasing use of boulders about the Kuhlman home may well lead others to make use of these native rocks and stones coming down Dunton avenue and up north on State road, we saw several places where boulders have been collected for use. The Mayers are to have a wall and arched entrance. Preserve these worthwhile features of our prairie state.

Mayhap it has been a dry season, maybe at times not cold, but was ever an autumn more glorious? Has any smart alert of a fault kept account of the days of sunshine since last May? Has any loyal friend of northern Illinois noted these glorious dawn and beautiful sunsets? In all memory I recall no more beautiful season than this of 1929.

In this connection it is well to know our own town and our own state in seeing America first. This many of our citizens have been doing during the vacation season. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gerland drove across to Galena, the old home town of U. S. Grant. There they enjoyed the quaint old city and many interesting features of the surrounding country. They spoke of the number of people they saw visiting the old Grant home, one of our historic spots in old Galena.

Earlier glows the highway lamp, The new moon bright and brighter comes; Beneath the clover blossoms damp, Grasshoppers dance while crickets drum.

The crickets drum, the hoppers dance, Don't pity them with doleful sigh. The robin sings on a bare branch, The chill wind growls and grumbles by.

He grumbles in his ragged clothes, Piling brown leaves in heaps at will. The dew congeals on a red rose, And spider web on window sill.

No need to pity the trees in their ragged coats, the rose where frost comes instead of dew, nor the crickets and hoppers dancing in the grass. Spring awakens them to life and beauty again. Nature is only singing lullabies in this autumn wind. She is only soothing her children to sleep.

Every day some one asks the question: "What should we do?" Well I don't know and who does? We most of us will go blundering on doing just what we've been doing. The wise ones will try to remedy their little follies and the foolish ones will go on clamoring for big changes and accomplish nothing. If some Sir Philip Gibbs could write a book, "Now the Truth may be told" in Arlington Heights it would surely be a "Best Seller."

Strange isn't it how near we seem to get to an investigation of public affairs without investigating? All public officials seem to dote on investigation committees to investigate other public officials. Saw a little chap on our new spread drive way loading up with stones to throw at other boys who should dare to come on that same drive-way for like malicious purpose. Yes sir, he'd drive them away so he would.

Most of us are like that little chap if caught poaching. O yes, we were just there to drive other intruder and filchers away, especially from the public crib. None of these moral lessons or intimations apply to our home town, but glance toward our tax and assessment mix up and think.

Hearing of divisions and factions in some of our churches in Arlington Heights, some of our new citizens are appalled. They had been charmed by our slogan, City of Good Neighbors, but when church members forget to be good Christians, what to think? Calling ourselves old members, old citizens or old anything, doesn't count if the spirit of God doesn't dwell and rule in our lives.

O, no, the world isn't growing more wicked, it's just that a few naughty ones become wickedly more active. Rule or ruin is a destructive slogan. Either in church or community. Did you ever read that poem "I Sat Alone With My Conscience in a Place Where Time Shall Cease?" Some of us are just now needing to sit alone with our conscience, that is, if we haven't paralyzed conscience.

When Rev. Billman, so humbly declared in his last sermon, he had made many mistakes, I could but think how I, how all of us, needed to make just such a confession. "We all do err, and come far short" of our high calling. The way to make our churches better is to be more loving, more forgiving and more Christ-like in our own hearts and lives, all the way.

Name it not faith, For 'tis a fact I find; The world grows better day by day, Sin and the sting it leaves behind. Like to a haunting wraith, Torturing the mind, Foes before good along the way; Yea, 'tis a fact I find, The world grows better day by day.

With God's love in my heart, What's human loss or gain; Or selfish longings vain, If I do well my part, Whine nor complaint, Why need I fash about, Death, or have fear of it? He who lives taper lit, Will put it out.

Let all my creed be love, And if there be a hell; Where some poor tortured thing,

Small Only in Stature
Stephen A. Douglas, Lincoln's opponent in the famous debates and later defeated by Lincoln for the Presidency, went to Illinois from New England when about twenty and was admitted to the bar before attaining his majority. He was a member of the legislature at twenty-three, a judge at twenty-eight, a member of congress at thirty, and a United States senator at thirty-three. Small wonder they called him "Little Giant."

Crith in pain, Ah, well! May angels from above, Just take his hand and bring Him into Heaven again, Such is the creed of love, Lived not in vain.

Fear have I none today, In weal or woe, Through storm or shine, Fervent I pray; Doing the best I can, Along life's way, Not pausing to repine To that vast future none may know Assured of love divine, As all men must trusting I go. Elinore Crisler Haynes.

On Tuesday, Mrs. C. Pankonin entertained quite a number of her friends to a 1 o'clock luncheon, the occasion being her birthday. The afternoon was spent playing bunco Mrs. A. Haacke received first prize.

Mr. H. Menching returned from the hospital on Tuesday, after undergoing an operation last week.
His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

On Thursday of last week, Mrs.
H. Knosp was a birthday child, celebrating this day with a large number of her friends. A one oclock luncheon was served, and bunco was played. Many pretty prizes were awarded.

Another birthday took place at the home of Mrs. H. Noll, when Little Miss Margaret celebrated with six of her little friends, the little Miss being six years old.
Six candles decorated the big birthday cake. The table was decorated in green and white. Lots of games were enjoyed and little prizes were awarded.

The Jolly Bunch met at the home of Mrs. Christ Busse. A very pleasant afternoon was spent and a dainty lunch served.

Mrs. Taube entertained her bunco club on Wednesday afternoon.
Mrs. Otto Maleske was the lucky one in receiving first prize. Mrs.
Panne second prize.

meeting in Austin on Sunday. Mr.
Noll being one of the trustees of the state.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. O. Landeck celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary.
Many happy returns.

Wm. Busse Jr. spent the week end on a fishing trip and reports an enjoyable time.

Wm. Schott, our local mason contractor, has been busy at the new Oelherking home and is making rapid progress since Mr. Schott has started in the contracting business, he has been kept busy right along, due to the way in which he does his work and the personal supervision he gives, which all works hand in hand to make the home owner feel that they are receiving a fair and square deal when they have Wm. Schott do their masonary and cement work.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Williams entertained relatives from Indiana
the past week end.

Mr. Fatland has as a visitor, his father-in-law from North Dakota.

One more birthday child was Mr. John Gerken, celebrating his birthday with his relatives and friends last Wednesday evening.

George Busse was in attendance at the national convention of mutual fire insurance companies in Indianapolis, Monday to Wednesday of this week. Mr. Busse returned home Thursday.

Officer Lesch took a spill with the motorcycle last Friday and was indeed fortunate not to have received any serious injury.

Plan Store Changes

The Busse-Bierman Co. are planning on some extensive changes that will make their hardware store one that will be pleasing to the customer and help them give better service to the patrons of this progressive store.

The plans are now being worked on and as soon as these are complete a more detailed account for the benefit of our readers will be given.

Mr. Biermann says that he is in business to help the buying public get what they want and in a way that will please them. Service is the aim of the store and quality merchandise that they can stand back of, at a price that is within reach of all. So as to accomplish this end a program to this end has been worked out and it is the hope of those interested that it will please our customers and make them feel that we do what we say.

NEW FIRE TRUCK IS FAVORED BY ITASCA VOTERS

Proposition is Carried 12 to 1 at Special Election

The village of Itasca will soon have its new fire truck. The voters of that village overwhelmingly gave their approval at a special election last Saturday for a bond issue of $7,500 for the purpose of purchasing a modern fire truck. The vote stood 12 to 1. The confidence expressed in that election by the voters of the village will be appreciated by the village officials and the members of the fire department. No longer will Itasca be without a modernized fire department and now that the approval of the public is obtained, the new engine can not come any too soon, say the boys.

Mayor Schroeder stated Wednesday that as soon as the necessary resolution is received from the attorney by the village board, a special meeting would be held to officially canvass the ballots and authorize the advertising for bids. An opportunity will be given all fire engine companies manufacturing equipment within the available price range, to present their merits of their engines to the village.

WALTHER LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED AT ITASCA CHURCH

The young people of St. Luke's congregation recently met at the church parlors for the purpose of organizing a church society. The officers elected at this time were: George Elbert, principal of the parochial school, president; Theodore Schneider, assistant teacher, vice president; August Schaper, recording secretary; Walter Forke, treasurer; Emma Droege, corresponding secretary; Hilda Schaper, librarian. Three other officers elected were Herman and Erwin Wede and Emma Forke. The society meets Friday evening to complete plans for activities and appoint nine other officers who, with the elected members, will constitute the executive board. The society will be known as the Walther League, a church organ, branching from the foundation organization of 60 members of this Synod. In the Itasca branch there are 40 members. Meetings will be held the first and third Friday evenings of the month, in the parlors of St. Luke's church.

Woman's Clubs of Milwaukee Railroad To Hold a Banquet

The annual Get-To-Gether Banquet of the Milwaukee Women's Club will be held at the Drake Hotel, Chicago, Saturday, Oct. 26. All active and contributing members are eligible to attend and may secure their banquet tickets of Mrs. Frank Sutherland, president of Chapter No. 3, Bensenville. Those desiring to attend should see the president as soon as possible so they may inform the committee just how many will attend from this chapter. A good attendance from here is desired.

Each year the attendance of the banquet becomes greater and this year hundreds of members from all over the Milwaukee railroad system will gather there for the annual occasion. If any member desires to attend it is very important that they get in touch with Mrs. Sutherland at their earliest convenience.

Lincoln School to Give Bunco Party

Lincoln School of District No. 1, at Lawrence and York roads, will hold a bunco and dance party Friday, October 18, at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served free. Price 50c.

Many costly prizes will be given away to the winners. A feature of the evening will be a valuable door prize. There will be plenty of room for all. All our friends are invited to come for a four hour indoor jubilee of playing, dancing and refreshments of course. Music will be played to suit both the old and young.

This bunco and dance party is given for the purpose of obtaining more library books for the school children's reading club.

HALF MILLION BONDS BEFORE VOTERS TUES.

DuPage County Sanitary Dist. Asks Approval of Voters In Bonds

The DuPage County Sanitary District, including the cities of Elmhurst and Villa Park, will vote on a half million dollar bond issue next Tuesday to provide a suitable disposal plant and necessary sewers for that district. A mass meeting was held in Addison last night to acquaint the voters of that community with the purposes and need of the improvement.

The sentiment around Addison and Wood Dale is rather lukewarm as many prominent people of those communities feel that Elmhurst has not treated them rightly. They feel that Elmhurst and Villa Park had no moral right to annex their communities into the district unless Itasca, Bensenville and even Roselle were likewise included. Also that Addison was promised and later denied representation upon the sanitary board.

Little effort will probably be made to defeat the bond issue, said a prominent Addison business man, Tuesday, as that town will be outvoted by the more populous district which needs the improvement and which we will help pay for.

Roselle Young Lady Married on Anniversary Of Parent's Wedding

Miss Erna Druehl, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Druehl, and Mr. Chester Lee Oswald of Elgin, were united in marriage at the home of the bride Saturday, Oct. 5, at 4 p. m. Rev. Naus, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church officiated. Those who attended were immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Miss Druehl wore a beautiful gown of oyster white satin with slippers to match. Her attendants, her sister, Margaret, wore green satin lined with rose. Her life long friend Miss Ella Hitzman was dressed in orchid chiffon. Mr. Walter Landwehr of Elgin and Robert Druehl, brother of the bride, were gentlemen attendants. The home was beautifully decorated in yellow and white. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Druehl were presented a bouquet of red roses from the family in honor of the 31st wedding anniversary which was also on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald left immediately after the dinner for their home in Elgin. They had planned a two week trip but on account of ill health of the bride the trip has been postponed. We extend our hearty congratulations to this young couple.

Many costly prizes will be given away to the winners. A feature of the evening will be a valuable door prize. There will be plenty of room for all. All our friends are invited to come for a four hour indoor jubilee of playing, dancing and refreshments of course. Music will be played to suit both the old and young.

Mr. Albert Kastning celebrated his 20th birthday Wednesday, Oct. 2. The evening was enjoyed playing bunco and many other interesting games.

Henry Fasse and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Winkelhake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Winkelhake visited at the home of their son, Henry, Tuesday.

We are sorry to report that Miss Eleanor Bahe had an accident with her automobile last week. She was only slightly injured.

The girl is quite ill and under a doctor's care.

Frank Spiereder and family were Chicago callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nebel visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheringhausen in Arlington Heights, Sunday.

Coch Johnson Takes 25 Students to The N. W. - Butler Game

Last Saturday will be a day long to be remembered by the Bensenville football squad. Their coach, Mr. Johnson acquired seats for 25 of them at the Northwestern-Butler game in Chicago, and personally took charge of the boys during their visit to the game. The boys not only enjoyed the game but saw much that will be beneficial to them as they attempt to mount the ladder of athletic fame during their coming years of high school football playing.

The boys all appreciate Mr. Johnson's kindness in taking such interest in his squad. Very few Bensenville players have had much actual experience at the game but all are anxious to learn all they can for the time is coming when they will be called upon to shoulder some of the responsibilities of winning pennants for Bensenville high school.

WOODDALE

Beginning with this week's issue of the Register, the news in this column will be supplied by Walter C. Nielsen. He intends to fill this column with news of interest to the people of Wood Dale, and will appreciate any assistance. Kindly phone your news items to Bensenville 87-87.

Next Tuesday, October 15, there will be a mass meeting at the school house to discuss the matter of a sidewalk to the school house. This meeting is called for the purpose of giving the residents an opportunity to express their views on the subject. If you are for it, you should be there, or if you are opposed to it, you should likewise be there.

Three new deputy marshals have received temporary appointments to assist Marshal Culek in enforcing the laws during the hunting season. These men are John Birgel, Ed. DuFault, and Art Knapp. Marshal Culek can be reached by telephoning 50-J-1; Ray Minch, 50-M-1; and Ed. DuFault, 48-W-2. Should any hunters or trespassers endanger your lives or property, call any of them and they will be glad to respond.

Miss Gladys Hayford, of Crystal Lake, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Fred Hoppensteadt. During her visit here she was entertained at a bridge party.

There is a small epidemic of scarlet fever in Wood Dale. The Anderson family have three cases, and the Joe Glump family have several cases.

The Brokenfield family have one case of measles. The newly organized board of health, consisting of Mayor John Schwass, Dr. Fred Oakes, and W. C. Nielsen, have taken necessary action to quarantine all families where one or more are sick with a contagious disease. All cases of sore throat should be immediately investigated to prevent further spread of the contagion.

Last Saturday one of the citizens of Wood Dale was burning weeds and leaves off his lot. Fanned by a strong wind it attained such proportions that it got beyond his control. But for the watchfulness of Councilman Dammeier, who assisted in putting out the fire, part of Wood Dale might have been destroyed. It would be well hereafter for all citizens to cut weeds and rake leaves in the proper season, and thus avoid any such calamity.

Mr. Edwin Hoppensteadt was appointed building commissioner at the last meeting of the village board. For all building or improvements costing $100 or more, it will be necessary to secure building permits.

Mr. Andrew H. Finke dropped dead Monday morning; death being caused by a sudden heart attack. He, with his brother George, were moving their corn picker over to the Franzen farm, when, for some reason or other, it got caught in the railroad crossing. It was impossible to dislodge it, and a passenger train was expected shortly. With the aid of another tractor it was pulled back off the track. They were able to clear the track in time for the train to go by. While inspecting the damage to the machine Mr. Finke stooped over to look under it as he did so his body slumped to the ground and before his brother George, who was standing a few feet away from him, could reach him he was dead. He had been troubled with his heart, but it was not of a serious nature, but with the excitement of getting the machines off the track before train was due, it was thought to have been the reason for his sudden death. His obituary appears in another column in this paper.

Sunday will be Rally Day at Wood Dale Ev. Community church. There will be special music and a program by the children. Everybody is invited to attend. Service will be at 9:45 a. m.

ANDREW H. FINKE

Andrew H. Finke, born Nov. 27, 1882, in Wood Dale, at that time known as Salt Creek, passed into the great beyond last Monday morning. He was 46 years, 10 months and 10 days old. He had spent all of his life on the farm on which he was born. His parents were George Finke and Caroline Nagel Finke, both of whom lived to a good old age. He was the brother of George, Hanna, Mrs. Martha Battin of Albion, Mich., and Mrs. Carrie Pfaff of Dundee, Ill., all living, with the exception of Hanna.

He was of a very quiet nature, and leaves many friends to mourn his passing.

Funeral services were held yesterday from the home and later at the Wood Dale Ev. Community church. Interment was in the family lot, St. John's cemetery north of Bensenville.

Glycerin Mix Removes Cause of Stomach Gas

Simple glycerin, buckthorn bark, saline, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels, removing poisons you never thought were there—antacid trouble. Just ONE spoonful relieves GAS, sour stomach, sick headache and constipation. Don't take medicine which cleans only PART of bowels, but let Adlerika give you a REAL cleaning and see how good you feel! It will surprise you!

Philosophy

Let not another's disobedience to nature become an ill to you; for you were not born to be depressed, and unhappy with others, but to be happy with them. And if any is unhappy remember that he is so for himself; for God made all men to enjoy life and peace.—Epicurus (Cicero, 69 A. D.).

Revival services at the Evangelical church are being well attended this week, the church being well filled each evening.

Rev. Schriver has had the support of his members from the beginning with aid from pastors of near-by churches. Beginning Wednesday evening, the Gideons, Messrs. Derry, Huff, Oelinger and Tracy have brought in renewed inspiration. Mr. Jorengsen has conducted the congregational singing.

Rev. William Zersen of Kelowna, British Columbia, who has been spending a vacation with his parents in Itasca, returned to his church activities this week.

Little Audrey Franzen was two years old the second of October and on that day accompanied the family to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Franzen of Fox Lake, where all enjoyed the opportunity of a reunion.

The girls baseball team of the Itasca public school played the Wood Dale team at Itasca Wednesday. Wood Dale won. Better luck next time girls. Irene Baruth was pitcher and Marie Wyse catcher for the Itasca team.

The Camp Fire Girls were working on the bead bands Saturday when they held their meeting at Mrs. Franzen's. They plan to have them completed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kane are moving into the Mahler home this week.

William Mahler, Sr., has gone on an extended business trip to Arkansas.

On Sunday, September 29, Miss Emmella Corroda and David Serre of Chicago, were married at Holy Rosary church. Those attending from Itasca were Mr. and Mrs. Mahler, Mrs. August Forke, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert, Mr. and Mrs. Kane and Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman with their families. There was a reception at five o'clock at National Hall for friends and relatives of both bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Serre received many beautiful gifts. They will make their home on Harrison street, Chicago. Miss Corroda, is well known in Itasca and her friends extend congratulations and a long life of happiness.

The community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Andrew Finke Monday morning. It seems that while crossing the railroad track east of Itasca on the Franzen farm, the tractor stalled and there was some difficulty in getting the engine working. It is thought Mr. Finke became unduly frightened that a train might come upon them and from over exertion and excitement died from nervous shock. Mr. Finke was well known in this part of the county, having lived on the farm on Irving Park boulevard all his life.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 from the house and Wood Dale community church. Rev. Schriver, pastor of the church officiated. Obituary will appear next week.

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held in the school auditorium Monday evening. There was a large number present and the lower grade rooms won the banner in a tie. As the banner can not be divided the decision will be granted upon the percent method hereafter.

Superintendent Morgan spoke on "Know Your Own School" and handled his subject well in presenting it to the community. Miss Helen Schaper entertained with instrumental piano selections. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

The November meeting will be held at the village hall. A health program will be in charge of the county nurse, Mrs. Hendricks. Doctors Schroeder and Kitzmiller will both have much to say on "Health." Everyone will gain much knowledge by attending. Parents have a two-fold reason for attending, besides the health issue to help their child's room earn the banner for parents' attendance.

The drinky little fire engine that so valiantly wheezed its way to Itasca fires during its past history, was relegated to the antique section of history, Saturday, at the special election. 193 progressive votes for the good of the community against 16 who thought they could not part with it.

Pupils of Presbyterian church Sunday school welcomed little Helen Mess back to her class Sunday after her serious illness.

Mrs. Ed. Degenkolb and son of Arcadia, California, started on their homeward trip Thursday after a visit with friends and relatives in Itasca and LaGrange.

Refreshments, the unusual kind that "just melt in ones' mouth," were served by the hostess who was assisted by her charming little daughter, Jean. Guests of honor were three cousins, The Misses Becker, of Ravenswood.

On Thursday evening last week, Mrs. Edna Scheette Bechtel entertained informally the immediate family relatives at her home.

During the past week several parties have been enjoyed in courtesy of Mrs. Degenkolb. On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Paul Degenkolb entertained at a bridge and bunco party. There were three tables of each. Those winning at bridge were Mrs. William Schuette.

Vitamins

Vitamin F is a rather uncertain vitamin. At the present time there is some controversy as to whether or not it should remain vitamin F or be known as vitamin B-1. The foods which contain vitamin B also contain vitamin F. The principal sources are yeast, wheat, nuts, seeds of legumes, fruits and vegetables, in the order named.

Yes, Betting and Gambling Is Against The Municipal Code

Some people express surprise that the Arlington Heights village board officially took action against the bookies. These same people may be interested in learning that as late as last spring the village board passed the revised code of Arlington Heights, in which occurred the following regulations about gambling.

"No person shall bring into the Village of Arlington Heights, or have in his, her or their possession, in the said village for the purpose of gaming, any table, thing or device of any kind or nature, with which money or any other thing of value may in any manner be played for, under a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense."—Sec. 819; Art. IV; Chap. 21.

"Any person who is a frequenter, visitor, . . . of or for any house, store, grocery, hall, room or any other place where are kept any E. O. tables, keno tables, faro bank, shuffle board, batonette, pigeon, shuffles or any other instruments, devices or things used for gambling whereon or with which money or property or anything representing money or property shall be played for, shall upon conviction be fined in a sum not less than five dollars and not exceeding one hundred dollars."—Sec. 822, Art. IV; Chap. 21.

"It is hereby made the duty of every member of the police force to seize any table, instrument, device or thing used for the purpose of gaming; and all such tables, instruments, devices, and things shall be destroyed. Any person or persons obstructing or resisting any member of the police force in the performance of any act authorized by this article shall be subject to a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense."—Article 823.

"Lotteries and Raffles." "No person shall keep, maintain, direct or manage or aid in the keeping, maintaining, directing or managing of any lottery or thing whatever for the drawing or disposing of money or any other property under a penalty of not exceeding one hundred dollars; nor shall any person expose in any of the streets, avenues or other public places within the limits of the village, any table or any device of any kind whatever, upon or by which any game of chance or hazard shall be played, or shall play at or upon such table or device under a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense."—Sec. 820.

"Betting Prohibited." "No person shall play for money or other valuable thing at any game with cards, dice, chess or at billiards or with any other article, instrument, or thing whatsoever, which may be used for the purpose of playing or betting upon or winning or losing money or anything of value, nor shall bet on any game they or others may be playing; or who shall race or trot any horse or horses on a stake or bet, or wager money, or other valuable thing upon a trotting match or horse race within the corporate limits of the village of Arlington Heights, every such person or persons shall, upon conviction, be fined for each offense so committed, not less than five dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars."—Sec. 821.

first, and Mrs. William Mess second and Mrs. Hamilton third. Lucky winners at bunco included Miss Lydia Weber, Mrs. Reece and Mrs. William Weber third.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chessman entertained thirty guests from Chicago Saturday evening at an old fashioned house warming. The basement was beautifully decorated and a long table erected so that all might enjoy the feast together. Mr. and Mrs. Chessman have recently moved into their new home and their future appears prosperous.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kueker entertained a party of friends at dinner Saturday evening, it being Mrs. Kueker's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. William Schuette, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Paulson and Miss Laura Wischstadt and gentleman friend were the favored guests. Later in the evening motored to Elmhurst to attend the midnight show.

Trinity Ladies Aid will hold their annual bazaar and supper in the school hall, Wednesday, Oct. 23. Keep this date in mind and be sure to attend.

The bazaar given by the Methodist Ladies Aid Saturday afternoon and evening, was well attended. About 200 dinners were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fairbanks and children attended a birthday party at the home of Miss Fairbanks mother in Oak Park Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thieman spent a few days the latter part of last week with relatives in Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bahkle and Mrs. Mathews of Norwood Park were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hutchinson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joan Bunting, Mr. and Mrs. Balke and daughter, of Chicago, were week-end guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. H

EAST MAINE

St. Matthews Ladies Aid held their regular monthly meeting Oct. 10. Mrs. A. Schaefer, Mrs. W. Sternberg and Mrs. G. Steil served. Another proof that roadside marketing is a prosperous business is the fact that Albert Ahrens is the possessor of a new Graham Paige sedan, one of the big models, purchased from the Babcock Motor Sales.

St. Matthews church calendar for the next two weeks includes the celebration of Holy Communion in both German and English, the former October 13, where Confessional services will start at 9:30. The latter will be held in connection with the regular English services Oct. 20. Announcement to be made Oct. 11 and 18.

Record crowds attended the bunc party sponsored by the Ladies Aid Oct. 4 and 5 in the school hall and enjoyed pleasant evenings meeting old friends and new from near and far as the game merrily progressed. There were scores of lovely prizes for highest winners while the special prizes—a silk pillow and fern raffled each evening, were won by Mrs. Adolph Moeller.

Erna Moehling and Christ Hennig. As usual those luscious chicken sandwiches, homemade cakes and savory coffee hit the right spot and successfully crowned the evening.

The Messers. Kath, Hennig and Ellerbrook who started on a motor trip to Weldon, Montana, to visit the John Sievers family there came back to East Maine last week without having reached their objective. Heavy rains on freshly graded roads made driving not only difficult but hazardous and impossible and the party were forced to turn back after reaching Bismark, N. Dakota. Although regretting their failure to carry out their original plans, the men say they had an enjoyable trip where roads were not too bad and if they could have taken Illinois good roads with them everything would have been O. K.

The Cubs and Athletics will not play ball Oct. 13, so that will give all the good baseball fans a chance to come out to East Maine to see the East Maine Juniors play their final game this season with Wilmette. You will recall that the home boys met their worst defeat of the season at the hands of their next Sunday's opponents and while they don't promise that they will win this battle, they are going to try mighty hard to do so and want a large crowd to back them and help them win. The boys indulged in a little practice game Sunday and are all set for their last lap and "rarin' to go."

Mr. Al. Riegert of Stetsonville, Wisconsin, accompanied by his wife and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. John Wiese, of Fond du Lac, are spending a week or so in East Maine, visiting old friends and scenes he left thirty years ago when he moved to Wisconsin to engage in the farming industry there. The Wisconsin party are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steil.

Abe Lyman Starts Engagement at The Oriental; Also Dix

Chicago's own knight of the drums, Abe Lyman, will return to this city Friday, Oct. 11, when he begins an engagement at the Oriental Theater marking his first appearance on the stage of a motion picture theater in Chicago.

Abe Lyman is known as one of the finest drummers in the country. His music has a rhythm all his own, and arrangements which few can equal.

The picture is a light comedy romance wherein Dix plays the part of a young doctor who is in love with his nurse but doesn't know it. When she brings the matter to his attention, the young doctor finds himself in a situation where he is unable to marry her. After a series of episodes in which he finds himself engaged to another girl, the matter is finally ironed out to everybody's satisfaction.

Variation in Dogs' Sizes

The mastiff, the St. Bernard and the Irish wolfhound are the biggest dogs. The mastiff is probably the heaviest and the Irish wolfhound the tallest. This is a very general statement, since individuals of all breeds sometimes are very large.

Here You Have It

RURAL SCHOOLS

MERRIL SCHOOL, DIST. 20

Virginia Kent, Editor
Betty Laskovsky, Asst. Editor
Mrs. Blum and pupils were ready for school Monday, Sept. 16. We started school with an enrollment of nine pupils.

We have had quite a few absences since school started, but we are going along fine now and we wish to keep it that way.

We have been picking flowers for our school for decorations. We took a morning off to clean the school yard.

Our evening achievement meeting will be held Nov. 11, 1929. We have just begun studying for our program.

We have two charts in our school, one is for spelling. If you get 100 for spelling you get a red star and if you get red stars for the whole year you get a gold star, the other is a cleanliness chart, we do the same with it.

The nurse and Mr. Byrd had visited the school they both said the school looked nice and spoke in particular about the school yard. They also spoke about the pupils, the nurse said we were all neat and clean about our face and hands and about our clothes and Mr. Byrd said we behaved very nicely.

We had our first achievement meeting Thursday, Sept. 26, 1929, the meeting was called to order at 3:00 o'clock and adjourned at 3:30 o'clock. Our new president is Miss Betty Laskovsky.

We have had nearly all our tests for this month.

We have twelve books to read when we are not too busy and we wish to express our appreciation to our teacher in this way for her kindness.

A wiener roast will be held at the school house Friday p. m. in addition to our regular achievement meeting.

STRONG SCHOOL, DIST. 22

Rosella Austin, Editor
Esther Koeppen, Asst. Editor
We have 36 pupils enrolled. Ten are beginners. We didn't have enough desks for the beginners so we got six more seats.

We elected our achievement officers Sept. 26.

Rosella Austin, president.
Esther Koeppen, vice president.
Claud Britt, secretary.

Lorraine Maierhofer, treasurer.
Vernon Koepfen's birthday was Sept. 30. His mother made a birthday cake for him and sent it to school. He gave each child a piece.

We have a new ball. The older boys and girls are making good use of it.

The 7th grade has been studying South America and have made very good maps of that country. The first grade made animal booklets last week. The 5th and 6th grades have made booklets illustrating Helen Hunt Jackson's poem "September." The 7th grade made booklets illustrating Bryant's poem "To a Waterfowl."

NORTHBROOK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Extras Shave Heads For Scene in Film at Roosevelt Theatre

The spectacular prison scenes for Al Jolson's new Warner Brothers Vitaphone, all-talking and singing picture, "Say It With Songs," now at the Roosevelt Theatre, brought forth the oddest collection of extras ever assembled on a Hollywood lot.

Three hundred men who worked several days and nights as convicts in the reproduced Sing Sing prison on the big sound stage were divided roughly into three groups.

First came ordinary types of varying ages and colors. For the second group the call went out for men willing to have their heads shaved in the fashion of newly arrived convicts in the New York prison, extra pay being offered for those who volunteered.

This group gave an added air of reality to the prison sequences and figured in numerous shots with Jolson. Their faces belied their nature, however, for the little group of tough-looking proved to be the most amiable lot of extras on the job.

"Say It With Songs" features tiny Davey Lee, the principal supporting player for Mr. Jolson.

Charles "Buddy" Rogers Nancy Carroll at Uptown

Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll appears at the Uptown Theatre Friday, Oct. 11, for one week in "Illusion."

Buddy is a successful magician. Nancy is the partner in the act. Both are circus reared. Both are troupers. But Buddy is society-conscious, and he begins to get himself liked by the idle rich who are unaware of his far from elite background. He pays court to a young heiress who likes him very much until she learns that he is only an old circus man's son. Then she jilts him.

In the meantime, Nancy, who was Buddy's first love, becomes disconsolate. She goes right on with her magic act, using a new partner, but her heart is not in the stage any more. At this point in the story an amazing and thrilling anti-climax is introduced.

Marion Davies Scores Hit at Chicago Theatre

"Marianne," Marion Davies' long-awaited all-talking picture, will open at the Chicago Theatre Friday, Oct. 11, for a week's engagement.

Playing a French girl in the picture, it is necessary for Miss Davies to use her gift of mimicry to stimulate an accent. She does this with excellent results.

"Marianne" may best be described as a war picture without any fighting. The action takes place shortly after the signing of the Armistice when a battalion of American soldiers are billeted in Marianne's village. Her love affair with one of the doughboys, which begins with an altercation over a pet pig belonging to Marianne's adopted family of war orphans, runs lightly and laughably along, until the time that Andre, her old sweetheart, returns blinded from a German prison camp.

Others in the cast are Cliff (Ukulele Ike) Edwards, Emil Chautard, Robert Edeson, George Baxter and Benny Rubin.

H. Leopold Spitalny presents another of his popular stage diversissements next week at the Chicago Theatre, "Over the Top," featuring Lou Kosloff and His Orchestra, in addition to a score of Broadway singers, comedians and dancers.

Broadway Actors in "Bulldog Drummond" at United Artists

Every important member of the cast of "Bulldog Drummond," the mystery thriller all-talking picture now playing at the United Artists Theatre with Ronald Colman as star, is an actor of considerable stage experience.

Colman himself was a prominent juvenile on the English stage before coming to the United States and got his first chance in pictures after Henry King, the director, saw him in a New York production and signed him to play opposite Lillian Gish in "The White Sister."

Best Dressed Hero Again Dons Uniform

Lowe is again "Sergeant Quirt" of "What Price Glory" fame, his third role of a sergeant and yet no hope of becoming a captain.

Twice a sergeant of marines, once in "What Price Glory," and now in "The Cock Eyed World," and in between another sort of a sergeant — "Sergeant Mickey Dunn" in "In Old Arizona." Lowe does not complain, for he insists that "What Price Glory" was the turning point of his motion picture career and is willing to play sergeants until the end of his screen days.

Victor McLaglen is again the arch enemy of Lowe in the story. Lovely Lily Damita is the feminine lead in this picture which is now playing at the McVickers Theatre. Lelia Karmelly, Jean Barry, El Brendel and Joe Brown are also prominently cast.

Goes After It

The "go-getter" type of successful business man never waits for his ship to come in—he charts a tug and brings it into dock him self.

Gave Oil Drillers Idea

The idea of drilling for oil was borrowed from the salt drillers operating along the Kanawha river in West Virginia.

Wheeling Department

Mrs. J. Arnold and Miss Louisa Forke, accompanied their brother, Mr. Ed. Forke and his wife, on a motor trip in the northwest.

Mr. Geo. Ward, Jr., was pleasantly surprised in honor of his 21st birthday last Saturday evening. Having gone out during the early part of the evening, about 40 relatives and friends, mostly young people, assembled at the home ready to greet him on his return. The evening passed merrily with a great variety of games. Refreshments were served before the guests departed wishing George many happy returns.

The annual chicken supper and bazaar held by the Ladies of the Presbyterian church will take place in the school house Wednesday evening, Oct. 16. Supper will be served in the basement of the school from 6 to 8 o'clock. Articles of fancy goods, aprons, candy, etc., will be on sale. A movie will follow later in the evening. Price of supper is 75c for adults and 40c for children 12 years and under. Admission for the motion picture will be 25c for adults and 15c for children 12 and under.

A tragedy snuffing out the life of a young man 23 years of age, occurred just south of the village when two cars collided at about 11:15 p. m. on Monday. The victim was Wilson Clements of Des Plaines, who was employed by surveyors on the road widening job. He was returning to their camp, riding on the running board of a car, which was struck by a car driven by a Chicago man. The irregularity of the road due to construction process, is thought to have been the cause of the accident. Mr. Clements, as a small lad, was a resident of Wheeling, while his father was principal of the school.

After lingering in an unconscious state for almost three weeks, Mrs. E. V. Port slipped from time to eternity shortly after six o'clock on Tuesday evening.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morning worship, 10:45 o'clock. The members of the church school and their parents are especially urged to be present at this service which is dedicated to them.

Church school for all ages, 9:30 a. m.

Evening Fellowship service, 7:30 p. m.

Weekly choir rehearsal Friday evenings at 7:30.

A conference of teachers and officers of the church school will be held Monday evening at 7:30 in the church.

The members of the congregation are requested to keep in mind the annual supper and bazaar sponsored by the aid society to be held next Wednesday evening in the school.

In the County Court of Cook County

vs.

CHICAGO TITLE & TRUST CO.,

MURPHY-MILES OIL CO., UP-

TOWN FUEL CO., ILLINOIS

MERCHANTS TRUST CO., JULIA F. TURNER, and "ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,"

Defendants.

No. 62567

IN THE MATTER OF THE Petition of the Village of Tessville, Illinois, to ascertain the compensation for private property to be taken or damaged for constructing a connected system of combined sanitary and storm water sewers, including manholes, catchbasins, vitrified pipe catchbasin connections, and all other necessary appliances and appurtenances thereto, in Kimball Avenue from Pratt Avenue to Touhy Avenue, all in the Village of Tessville, Cook County, Illinois, and what property will be benefited by such improvement and the amount thereof.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to said defendants, and to the defendants designated as "All Whom It May Concern," and to all other persons and parties named in the report and assessment roll of the commissioners, filed in the above entitled cause in said Court, against whose property benefits have been assessed therein, to pay the cost of the improvement hereinafter described; that on the 9th day of October, A. D. 1929, said Village of Tessville filed its Petition in the said County Court of Cook County, praying that steps be taken to ascertain the just compensation to be made for private property to be taken or damaged for the above described improvement, in said Village, ordered and provided for in and by an Ordinance of said Village, and to ascertain what property will be benefited by such improvement and the amount of such benefit, and to levy a special assessment upon all the property benefited by said improvement, to pay the cost of said improvement, in accordance with the terms and provisions of said Ordinance and in manner provided by law; that the summons in said cause is made returnable on the 12th day of November, A. D. 1929, to said Court, to be held in the Court House in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, and that the pieces and parcels of property to be taken for said improvement are described as follows, to-wit:

The strip of land forty (40) feet in width, lying twenty (20) feet on each side of the following described center line, beginning at a point on the north and south center line of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of Section Thirty-five (35), Township Forty-one (41) North, Range Thirteen (13) East of the Third Principal Meridian, at the northern line of Pratt Avenue, thence northwesterly along said north and south center line of said Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of said Section Thirty-five (35), to the southerly line of Touhy Avenue, except the north thirty-three (33) feet of the Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of said Section Thirty-five (35).

That the total cost of said improvement, as shown by the Estimate and report herein, is the sum of TWENTY THREE THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED NINETY THREE DOLLARS AND TWENTY-THREE CENTS ($23,493.23); that a special assessment has been made to raise the cost of said improvement, and that the report of the commissioners, filed in the office of the Clerk of said County Court, of the said Cook County, in the Court House in the said City of Chicago, County and State aforesaid, on the 10th day of October, A. D. 1929, and that the proceedings therein are now pending.

YOU ARE FURTHER HEREBY NOTIFIED that summons in the said cause is made returnable to the said Court, to be held in the said Court House in the said City of Chicago, on the 12th day of November, A. D. 1929, when and where you may appear and defend if you see fit so to do.

DATED Tessville, Illinois, October 11th, A. D. 1929.

WALTER G. HERBSTER, CLARENCE W. ANDERSON, JOSEPH N. PROESSEL, commissioners.

ROBERT W. SWEITZER, County Clerk. (11-1)

NOTICE OF PROPOSALS FOR BIDS

Sealed bids will be received for the construction of a connected system of street pavement in NORTH MITCHELL AVENUE and other streets and avenues in the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, as provided for in the proceeding known as Arlington Heights Special Assessment No. 109, in the County Court of Cook County, by the Board of Local Improvements of the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, until the 21st day of October, A. Many Folks at Congregational Home Coming Glenview Congregational church celebrated its third annual homecoming last Sunday. There were a great many families present to partake of the activities of the day, some of them coming a great distance to enjoy the day at the church. We were glad to see so many visitors. The morning church service was of a high character and a great inspiration. The ladies aid served a good dinner and the program in the afternoon was excellent.

There was the Sunday school hour at 10 o'clock, with classes assembled in their places after promotion the Sunday before. At 11 o'clock a beautiful prelude was played by Mrs. Ivan Smith and an atmosphere of genuine awe and reverence immediately prevailed. The flowers and candles gave the very pretty setting for all that was to follow. The robbed choir with their director marched into the church singing "Onward Christian Soldiers." Rev. Ivan Smith assisted the pulpit and the service was started. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fluger was presented for baptism. The sermon, delivered by the pastor, presented many noble thoughts. It was delivered with power and beauty. The music of the choir, including the harvest anthem "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" was well rendered. We were especially glad to have as our soloists for the morning service Miss Julia Shadown and Mr. Lester McKinzie, both of whom rendered a real message in song. The service closed with the Doxology and Recessional.

There followed many hearty handshakes and friendly greetings, then the call to dinner. The dining hall, with its decorations of blue and white and its pumpkin vases filled with zinnias presented a pleasing sight indeed. The flowers were the gift of Mrs. Szymid and were effectively displayed on the tables and hall by Arthur Palmgren. Approximately 175 people partook of the meal together. Rev. and Mrs. Sanger of the Methodist church were guests at the dinner, and the invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Sanger. Credit is due Rev. Smith, Mr. John Wolf, and the Boy's Club for the decoration of the hall. Mrs. Henry Mompier was chairman of the dinner committee, and was ably assisted by various members of the Ladies Society.

The committee in charge of the program at 3 o'clock included Mrs. Ivan Smith, Mrs. Wilma Wheeler, Mr. Arthur Palmgren, and Mr. Gail Westbrook. We were again favored with solos by Miss Shadown and Mr. McKinzie; Miss Peggy French, Mr. Westbrook, and the Palmgren brothers entertained with funny sketches; the choir rendered special music. A special feature of this program was the rendition of two beautiful pieces of music by a quartette, all the members of which except one were grandmothers. They were the Mesdames P. J. Sengstrook, J. B. Gibbs, H. H. Hall, and G. S. Cook of Des Plaines Congregational church.

And what could be more fitting to close the Homecoming Day than the Fireside service around the lighted and cheerful fireplace. Mr. Wolf and Mr. Oden deserve credit for the construction of this home-like fireplace, representing the family altar. The family Bible was prominent on this altar when the two candles were lighted. Scripture and family prayer were a part of this closing service, and the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" told us that the day had ended all too quickly. We went back to our homes.

A delightful day had been spent in the friendship and fellowship of the church and its people, and its inspiration will long be a pleasant memory to all who attended the Third Homecoming at the Glenview Congregational church.

Morton Grove and Niles Center Friends Attend Wedding Anniversary

In honor of their wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hinz of Leyden township, were surprised Saturday evening, Oct. 5. The Hinzes were out shopping while they all gathered at the house waiting. When they returned they found about 75 guests waiting to make whoopee. Some of the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Boekenbauer of Portage Park, Chicago; Edward Wohlbrandt and family; Albert Schuler and son, Paul Gross and family; Herman Hinz, all of Niles Center; Mr. and Mrs. William Kosek and children of Morton Grove, and a crowd of relatives and friends from Evanston, among them Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pfeiffer, Mr. Otto Hinz, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hinz, Jr.

The evening was spent playing cards and dancing to the tune of a nice concertina and drum until the early morning hours. At midnight a nice lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hinz thank every one for the lovely gifts they received.

Discontent

There are two kinds of discontent in this world, the discontent that works and the discontent that wrings its hands. The first gets what it wants and the second loses what it has. There's no cure for the first but success; and there's no cure at all for the second.—Graham

GLENVIEW

Mrs. Horace Smith returned Saturday from her trip to Iowa, where she visited her mother and other relatives and friends. Upon her return home she found her son, Dickie, entertaining a case of chicken pox.

Mrs. E. C. Bleam was hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening instead of Mrs. H. H. Smith.

League of Arts to Present First Play of Season Oct. 26

This is the first public announcement concerning the cast of the first play of the 1929-1930 season by the League of Arts of Glenview. The three act play called "A Busy Honeycomb" will be presented Saturday, October 26, at the Glenview public school auditorium.

Last year's successful work was greatly dependent upon the good work of Mrs. B. E. Gould in selecting both the plays and the players. As a result the reward of further work along this line was given her when she was made the manager of the production committee. The other side of this work, the directing, is to be handled by John Stein, of the Northwestern School of Speech, and who is well known for his inspiring work last year with the various casts and to whom a great deal of credit goes for making these amateur productions such big hits.

The members of this cast to play in "A Busy Honeycomb" are very nearly all familiar to everyone. Their abilities are unquestionable and The League of Arts feels certain that the mention of their names will have some bearing on desire to see this play. They are as follows:

Teresa—Emily Gould.
Johnnie Fogarty—Charles Meyer.

Alma—Myrta Gould.
Curtis—Brown—Mrs. R. L. West.

June Callahan—Gladys Wallbaum.

August—Rev. R. Sanger.
Terry Rafferty—Eugene Kehle.

Ignatius Popopolis—Grace Bartling.
Gottlieb—Mr. E. C. Bleam.

Maggie Rafferty—Mrs. B. E. Gould.
Louise—Mrs. C. A. Bartling.

Grogan—Mr. G. Ulrich.

Thrilling Scenes Make
Rail Drama Exciting

Huge locomotives rushing at breakneck speed to the rescue of victims in the Mississippi flood area, the construction of an entire locomotive in the great shops of the Chicago Northwestern line, Lon Chaney, as a veteran engineer, driving a locomotive more than 600 miles in filming the picture—these are some of the thrills in "Thunder."

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer epic railroad drama synchronized with sound, which is coming to the Des Plaines Theatre.

The new picture, directed by William Nigh, is a thrilling and intimate story of railroad life, an original by Byron Morgan. Phyllis Haver, James Murray, George Duray, Wally Albright, Jr., Frances Morris, and others of note are among the players in the new production. Most of it was filmed on the Chicago Northwestern trains and in flood area.

Chaney is seen in a role vastly different from his usual ones. It lacks the element of the bizarre but is intensely human. As an old engineer, past 70, but still the driver of a crack limited, he has ample opportunity to embellish his role with glamour and adventure.

The Four Marx Brothers Entertain

The Four Marx Brothers, Groucho, Harpo, Chico and Zeppo, made their screen debut last evening, clowning through "The Cocoanuts." Paramount's new talking singing picture at the Rialto theatre.

They are funny, Groucho, supplied with idiotic lines, puts them over snappily; Chico does his piano playing specialty and Harpo the silent one, plays the harp. They're on the screen most of the time.

"The Cocoanuts" is based on the musical comedy of the same name in which the Marx Brothers, you'll recall, starred during its stage run. And the picture version adheres to all the time-honored traditions of the stage musical comedy.

Mary Eaton and Oscar Shaw, as the romantic leads, sing their song very pleasantly and Miss Eaton dances gracefully.

"The Cocoanuts" owes its entertainment value to the antics of the Marx Brothers. It will be at the Des Plaines Theatre next week Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Klauer will have her father, Mr. Newbert, of Chicago, with her again several weeks.

Keen interest is being manifested in the Dunlop meeting now on each night at Northbrook Presbyterian church.

Dr. and Mrs. Dunlop are gifted Evangelists and know how to make people think. "The Soul of the Question," says the speaker, "is the question of the soul." "Man is made in the matchless image of God and is meant to think his thoughts after him."

The beautiful duet sung by the doctor and his wife are also a feature of each service at 8 p. m. Also personal experience in 25 years of work all over this country and abroad make for many a pointed illustration by evangelists.

MORTON GROVE

Lorraine Kirscht, who was confined to her home several days on account of illness has returned to her work.

Mrs. Wm. Robinson, who is a patient at St. Francis hospital, has gained some in weight and is slowly gaining in strength. Her friends hope she will soon return to her home in Morton Grove.

Mr. Gilbert Jurn was a Chicago business caller Thursday.

Mr. Red Biesman was one of a party of four who attended the show at the Granada Thursday night. Usual good time was had by all.

Harry Hagerty, nephew of Chas. Schrieff of the Shure Rite Dog Kennels on Lincoln avenue, sprained his shoulder while playing on the football team of the Senn high school last week. Although the shoulder is painful, Harry is attending his usual school classes and will be back in the game soon. He is known as one of Senn's good players.
